

Collage fun fact: The word collage comes from the French word for glue - a lot of different things are glued together to make something new!