

Glass fun fact: Even though you can usually see through glass, there are ways to add color while making the glass so no one can see through it but the light of the sun can still shine through!

