

Sunflower fun fact: sunflowers love the sun. While they are growing, the flower turns during the day so it is always looking at the sun! That turning is called heliotropism.

